

Competition:

How to Win your own copy of the book “1000 Churches to Visit in Scotland”

The ACTS News-sheet style was recently re-designed to accommodate the changes in the new postal pricing which comes into effect in August this year. Although the change has been fairly well received it makes the current name ‘News-sheet’ a little less descriptive.

We have decided to change the name to fit the new style and have offered a selection of choices. In addition there is an opportunity for you to choose another name entirely. When we have discovered which name change was the most popular, we will randomly select the winner from those who chose this name.

Should there be few choosing the given choices or if the selection is fairly even across the board then a list will be selected from the individual choices and a random choice made thereafter.

So, for a double chance of winning, please select one from the choices given and also give a new name of your own in the appropriate space. Entries should be sent to: Shona Paterson, ACTS, 7 Forrester Lodge, Inglewood, Alloa FK10 2HU before Monday 3rd July 2006

Good Luck!
