

Scottish Ecumenical Gathering 2006

Saturday 17 June
Bells Sports Centre
Perth

Information Sheet 2

WHO? The Gathering is a grass roots church celebration for people from within the ACTS family and beyond. It will be an open access event and we hope will provide opportunities for young and old alike to celebrate the 'Seeds of Hope' we see in our communities and the world today as Christian people worship, work and witness to God's Kingdom.

SPEAKER PROGRAMME: provisional titles

- 'Hope through Politics: Our engaging with the world' Douglas Alexander, MP
- 'Seeds of Hope' Joel Edwards (Evangelical Alliance)
- 'Ecumenical Futures' Cardinal Keith Patrick O'Brien
- 'Hope in the Future: Church, Children and Society' Kathleen Marshall (Scotland's Children's Commissioner)
- The Journey of Hope: Personal Reflections' Jurgen Moltmann (theologian)
- 'Living in Hope?' a conversation involving Kathy Galloway (Iona Community) Richard Holloway (Scottish Arts Council), Andrew McLellan (HM Inspector of Prisons)

ALSO ON OFFER.

- Scottish Churches Community Trust Annual Meeting
- Scottish Churches Racial Justice Conference
- The Mobile Bibleworld Experience (Scottish Bible Society)
- Market stalls
- Workshops
- Pre-school crèche and 5-12s programme

WHAT WILL IT COST? Tickets for the day will cost £5 for an adult and £10 for a family of two adults and up to four children. A free park and ride service will operate to and from the park and ride car parks on the edge of Perth and the bus and train stations. You will be able to buy food at the event. You may bring your own lunch and enjoy eating it outside the Sports Centre on the Inch.
